

The RISE committee moves that our committee be involved in discussions about the future of the Sustainability Office here at Auburn University prior to the retirement of the current director.

---