

Be it resolved that the University Senate, as the representative body of shared governance at Auburn University strongly condemns the Russian Federation's aggression toward the sovereign nation of Ukraine as being in violation of Article 2, paragraph 4 of the Charter of the United Nations — an obligation to refrain from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any State.